PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Arizona-based artist, sculptor, creative fabricator, and educator working across sculpture, ceramics, drawing, mixed media, installation, public art, scenic fabrication, and creative learning environments.

My practice is shaped by questions of interconnectedness, interiority, protection, transformation, and the ways physical forms can carry meaning. My professional work moves between individual studio practice and the operational realities of creative spaces: people, materials, tools, communication, budgets, instruction, and follow-through.

Making is how I think.

Whether building an object, a studio, a course, or a collaborative environment, the underlying impulse is the same: create conditions in which ideas can become tangible and people can make things that did not exist before.

ARTISTIC PRACTICE & SELECTED CREATIVE EXPERIENCE

Artist in Residence

2008-2010

Orr Street Gallery - Columbia, Missouri

- Participated in a community gallery environment as a practicing artist, developing work within the public-facing culture of contemporary art.
- Maintained an active studio practice centered on sculpture, material exploration, construction, and conceptual development.

Independent Artistic Practice

Sculpture / Ceramics / Mixed Media / Installation / Fabrication

Studio practice spanning sculptural and ceramic objects, assemblage, drawing, painting, mixed media, installation, and constructed environments. Recurring interests include material transformation, repetition, boundaries, protection, interiority, interconnectedness, structure, and the physical evidence of making.

STUDIO & CREATIVE ENTERPRISE

Founder & CEO

2022-2024

Suntoad Studios, Inc. - Tucson, Arizona

- Established and operated an independent art-centered business combining hands-on instruction, community workshops, creative programming, and art-supply retail.
- Built and managed a public studio environment designed to make art-making accessible to adults and families.
- Managed staffing, vendor relationships, purchasing, budgeting, scheduling, customer experience, and daily operations.

Owner

Current

Suntoad Sundries LLC - Arizona

Independent creative-commerce venture focused on the development, production, and sale of artful goods and related creative work.

I build the work - and the conditions that let work happen.
